WELCOME

I'm delighted to welcome you to the Aspire All-Star National Tournament here at the National Basketball Performance Centre in Manchester.

This will be the second time we've been able to shine a spotlight on our young players as they represent our four Super Regions, with the All-Star format first beginning in 2022. This weekend's games will showcase the best young players in England who have participated in the Aspire programme across the season.

I'd like to thank the facility staff at the NBPC, plus the North West Region, for hosting us and our team of officials and for helping to put on what is sure to be a great weekend.

These young athletes are still at the development stage of their journey, and we want to celebrate their early success. It's also a chance to assess their growing fundamental skills and potential in a competitive, performance environment.

This season marks a new era for English basketball, after Team England won historic gold and silver medals at the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games.

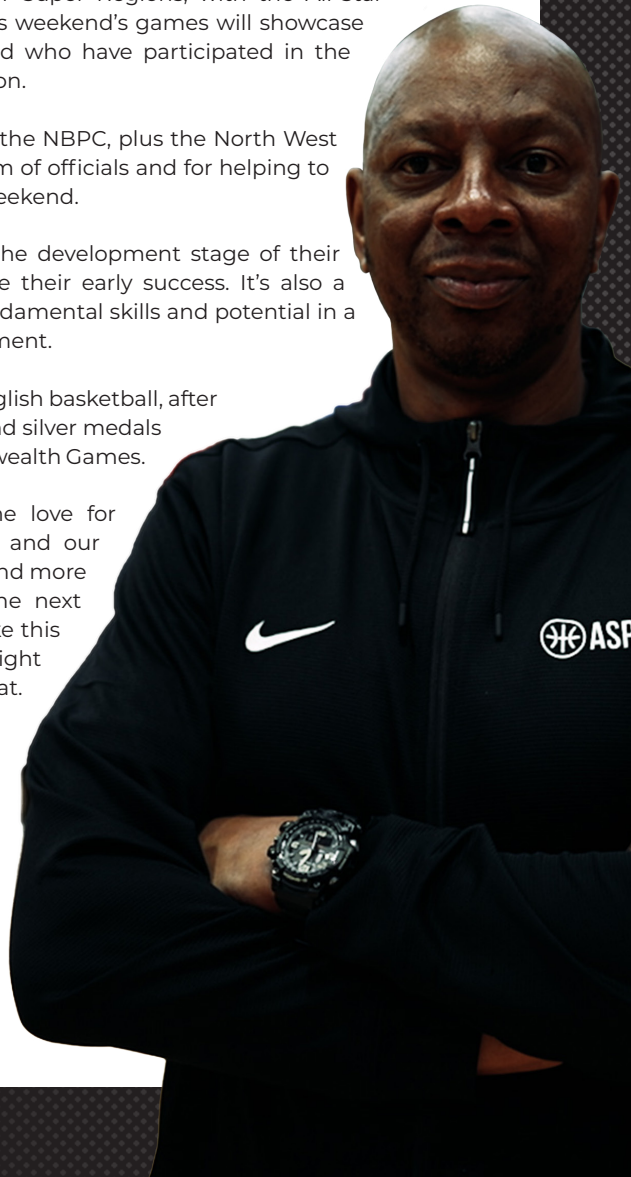

There's no two-ways about it: the love for the game is on the ascendancy, and our mission is to make it more visible and more accessible. We want to inspire the next generation of talent, and events like this weekend as well as that magical night in Birmingham play a big role in that.

To find out more, or to get involved in any capacity, head over to our website at www.basketballengland.co.uk.

Enjoy the tournament and thank you for joining us.
